Running to Cure Childhood Cancer

2024

Dear Team Lemon Runners,

On behalf of Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation (ALSF), we would like to formally express our appreciation and profound thanks for your support of the Foundation and our mission of changing the lives of children with cancer and their families. For every mile you run we become closer to ending childhood cancer.

Enclosed in this guide you will find useful fundraising information and tools. Please note the fundraising ideas we have put together are 100% optional.

We are excited to welcome you to our team and can't wait to see you at the finish line!

With gratitude,

Allison Lautman

About ALSF

Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation (ALSF) emerged from the front yard lemonade stand of 4-year-old Alexandra "Alex" Scott, who was fighting cancer and wanted to raise money to find cures for all children with cancer. Her spirit and determination inspired others to support her cause, and when she passed away at the age of 8, she had raised $1 million. Since then, the Foundation bearing her name has evolved into a national fundraising movement and is one of the leading funders of pediatric cancer research in the U.S. and Canada.

Your Impact

Where the money goes...

Your donations fund research that brings better treatments and cures to children with cancer.

ALSF also provides emotional, financial and logistical support to childhood cancer families that makes their challenges more manageable. Programs like SuperSibs and Travel For Care have an immediate impact on families dealing with a childhood cancer diagnosis.

Lemon Tips

Making the Most of Your Fundraising Page

When you complete your Team Lemon application, you will receive your very own virtual headquarters: your fundraising page.

This page is a powerful tool for raising money and promoting your stand or event. You can use it to let everyone know your event details and track your progress toward your goal. Your fundraising page is also how you'll accept online credit card donations. Your supporters can donate directly to your event via your page – just give them the link, and they can click “donate” right on your page.

Here are some tips to make the most of your fundraising page:

Tips

- Personalize your page with photos and inspiring messages, and honor a childhood cancer hero!
- Email or share your page on social media and ask for a donation. Make the amount attainable for your donors. For example, ask friends to donate $50, which pays for one hour of cancer research.
- Make your fundraiser more meaningful by sharing a childhood cancer hero story in your donation ask.
- Remind donors that every donation makes a difference and be sure to thank them for giving!

Your Fundraising Page

Here is a glance at a fundraising page. Each runner will have their own fundraising page for you to use to collect donations.

Your Event ID number is important when receiving check donations. If you receive any check donations, please include your number on the memo of the check so that ALSF can attribute those donations to your fundraising page.

The page features a large image of lemons and a 'FUNDRAISER DETAILS' section. Below the details are social media share buttons, a 'PRINT A CUSTOM FLYER' button, and a 'SHOW QR CODE' button. A 'DONATE' button is also present. The fundraising progress bar shows a goal of $5,000 and an amount raised of $4,050, with a yellow arrow pointing to it.

Friends,
At age 60, I'm attempting to run the New York City Marathon on November 7, 2021. My inspiration is a young girl named Emmy Masciantonio. Emmy was diagnosed with a rare, aggressive cancer of the central nervous system (ATRIT). Her parents are both Cumbria residents. O. grads. and their family are friends of ours.

Frequently Asked Questions

Why is Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation different from other childhood cancer charities?
Changing Childhood Cancer, One Research Grant at a Time Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation (ALSF) is unique in its big picture approach to funding research. Projects are examined by a peer review board and range from early science to clinical trials. This attracts the most talented and innovative pediatric cancer researchers across the world.
National Institutes of Health-Approved ALSF is the only childhood cancer foundation approved by the National Institutes of Health. That distinction is due to the Foundation's rigorous grant selection process. ALSF is also the sole pediatric cancer organization granted the National Cancer Institute Peer Reviewed Funder designation.
Leveraging Big Data ALSF founded the first-of-its-kind Childhood Cancer Data Lab. Their mission is to develop tools and training programs to empower childhood cancer researchers to utilize vast amounts of data to make more robust discoveries and find cures, faster and cheaper.
A Willing Partner Many other childhood cancer foundations from across the country partner with ALSF to ensure their dollars are going to the most critically needed areas of research.

Who was Alex Scott?
Alex was a little girl born to Liz and Jay Scott in 1996. She was diagnosed with neuroblastoma shortly before her first birthday. She fought the disease courageously and decided to start a lemonade stand to help cure childhood cancer. Her selfless idea grew into a national movement that raised more than $1 million before she passed away in 2004. The Foundation that bears her name continues her goal of supporting kids facing cancer by finding cures and promoting awareness.

How much money has ALSF raised?
ALSF has raised more than $200 million and funded over 1,000 research projects at nearly 150 institutions in the U.S. and Canada. ALSF also provides important resources to help families facing a diagnosis, including the Travel For Care program that provides financial assistance for eligible families that must travel far from home to receive treatment.

How much of the money raised goes to programs and research versus administrative/fundraising costs?
Alex was committed to making every donation count, and the Foundation has carried on that vision by giving as much as possible to research and programs. In 2020, the fundraising and administrative expenses combined were 19%. ALSF also received a 4/4 rating from Charity Navigator in 2017.

Letter of Support

Reaching out to the community is a great way to assist with fundraising. Whether you are asking for monetary support or lemonade for your lemonade stand, your community is a valuable source of support!

Fighting childhood cancer, one cup at a time.

January 1, 2024

To Whom It May Concern,

We are delighted that Annie Lemon has chosen to partner with Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation this year in the fight against childhood cancer. Please consider supporting their efforts to raise much needed funds and awareness for innovative research projects working to develop better treatments, and ultimately, cures for all childhood cancers.

A little background on our Foundation if you haven't heard of us – Alexandra "Alex" Scott founded Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation on what seemed to be a simple concept. In the year 2000, when Alex was just 4-years-old and battling neuroblastoma, she told her parents that she wanted to have a lemonade stand in her front yard. She surprised everyone when she announced her plan to donate the money from the stand to "her hospital" to help the doctors find a cure for all kids with cancer. She continued to hold yearly lemonade stands to benefit childhood cancer research with the help of people from all over the world. In August of 2004, Alex passed away at the age of 8, knowing that, with the help of others, she had raised more than $1 million to help find a cure for all kids with cancer.

Since Alex's very first stand in 2000, more than $250 million has been raised for childhood cancer research! Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation has funded over 1000 research projects in nearly 150 leading pediatric cancer hospitals throughout the United States and Canada.

We are committed to ensuring Alex's legacy continues through Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation and hope that you will support the efforts of Annie. Please follow up with Allison at a.lautman@alexslimonade.org should you have additional questions.

Your support is most appreciated and will make a meaningful impact on the lives of all children with cancer!

Sincerely,
Allison

Idea 3

Run...

A Training Day Sponsorship!

Dedicating a training day to fundraising is a fun way to bring in funds!

How does this work?

- Send a call of action to your friends and family to get involved! Email, message on social media, text/phone call, etc...
- Example outreach message:
 - "Today I am running 10 miles to train for the [insert name of marathon]. I'm running the race as part of Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation's Team Lemon. Would you donate $1 for every mile I run ($10) to my fundraising page in honor of kids battling pediatric cancer?" (Don't forget to include your page link!)

Idea 4

Fill the card...

Of a Virtual Instagram Bingo Board!

- Click here to save the bingo board to your phone or computer.
- Add a text link to your cash apps (like Venmo) or your ALSF fundraising page.
- Encourage your audience to make donations via your text link.
- As donations come in, update your board by tagging supporters on the lemon of their given amount!
